“Relationships - Entertainment Industry & You”

The Actors Room announces “Relationships” its 3rd installment in a need-to-know series of seminars! Each seminar is uniquely designed to answer the most essential questions asked by actors struggling to realize their dream. Each topic is a vital piece of the career puzzle, providing the direction needed to move forward with confidence!

It’s an obvious fact that having solid relationships in the entertainment industry is one of most important things an actor can do to advance their career. Most seminars do little more than remind us of that fact. The Actors Room will take an honest and realistic look at how to build those relationships. This is not one you’ll want to miss!

Guest Speaker: Ross Grossman, Talent Agent & President - Affinity Artists Agency (SAG, AFTRA, AEA, WGA, AFM) - Ranked #1 by IMDb twice in 2009. Mr. Grossman will address the real questions and concerns actors have when trying to forge a lasting and working relationship with an agency in the heart of Hollywood.
